City Circle Tram

The free City Circle Tram is a convenient way to see the sights of central Melbourne while experiencing a ride on one of the city's iconic, historical trams.

The service operates from 10am to 6pm Sunday to Wednesday and 10am to 9pm Thursday to Saturday, excluding Good Friday and Christmas Day.

From Harbour Esplanade you're in a great position to explore Docklands, including Victoria Harbour and Yarra's Edge with its dining, parks, waterfront walks and more. Ethad Stadium hosts many of the nation's greatest sporting events, along with concerts and more. Docklands Park has free barbecues, picnic areas, an interactive 'Play Journey' playground for the kids and three wetlands attracting many indigenous birds to the park.

Stop 10 Ethad Stadium & Victoria Harbour, Docklands

At New Quay Promenade you'll discover a host of restaurants and bars.

From the intersection of Pearl River Road and Docklands Drive, you are only minutes from a wide variety of waterfront attractions. The Medibank Icehouse is home to ice-based events including ice hockey, curling and more. You can take to the ice yourself on one of the two Olympic-sized rinks. Harbour Town is all about shopping. The Waterfront City Marina offers public berthing facilities and is a great place to check out the boats.

Stop 9 Waterfront City, Docklands

From this stop you can also visit Melbourne Zoo by taking tram number 55 from Peel Street, or head to Flemington Racecourse by taking tram number 57 from Victoria Street.

More than a shopping destination, the Queen Victoria Market is a historic landmark and a leading tourist attraction. Over 125 years old, this vast and vibrant centre of trade and commerce serves the consumer needs of more than 200,000 shoppers a week. Spreading over some seven hectares, the market sells everything from gourmet food and wine to clothes and souvenirs.

Stop 8 Queen Victoria Market

Discover the history of Melbourne's multicultural society at the Immigration Museum, or learn more about indigenous culture past and present at the Koorie Heritage Trust Cultural Centre. William Street is also home to Melbourne's biggest legal institutions, including the Law Courts, Supreme Courts and the County Court. Take in some impressive architecture at the ANZ Gothic Bank or wander down to the waterfront at Enterprise Wharf and explore the amazing underwater world of Melbourne Aquarium.

Stop 12 Southbank & Yarra River

The chic riverside strip of Southbank is home to the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre and the South Wharf Promenade. Not far away is the gift and glamour of Crown Entertainment Complex where you can dance at a nightclub, catch a movie, or eat at a waterside restaurant. Heading east along the bank is Southgate, a popular shopping and restaurant complex on the banks of the Yarra River. The Eureka Skydeck 88 is the southern hemisphere's highest viewing platform with the amazing Edge experience, a glass cube which projects three metres out from the building suspended almost 300 metres above the ground. Visit a classic tall ship, the Polly Woodsie, and learn about maritime history at the Melbourne Maritime Museum.

Stop 13 The Shrine and Royal Botanic Gardens

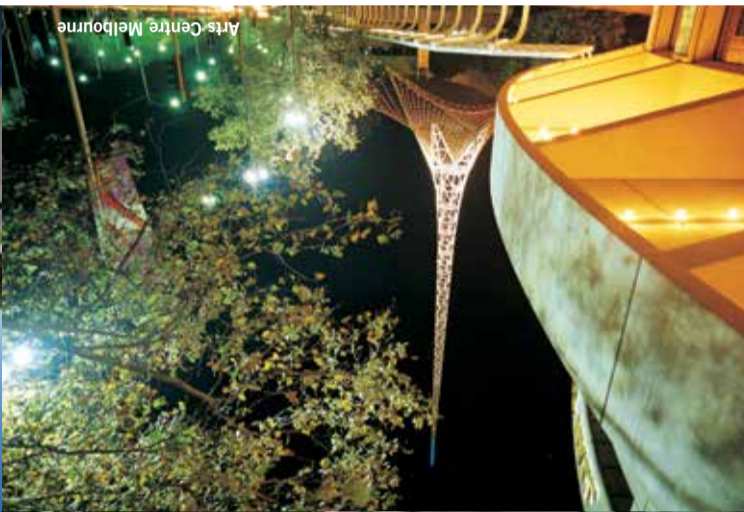

One of Melbourne's most recognisable landmarks, the Shrine of Remembrance, is Victoria's memorial to the service and sacrifice of its men and women in times of conflict. The Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne is a must-see attraction for spectacular scenery and native bird-life. The Botanic Gardens feature an award winning garden shop and visitor centre, the Ian Potter Foundation Children's Garden and cafes. Nearby are the formal parklands of Kings Domain, the world-class performance venue of the Sidney Myer Music Bowl, Government House and La Trobe's Cottage.

Stop 11 William Street

Discover the history of Melbourne's multicultural society at the Immigration Museum, or learn more about indigenous culture past and present at the Koorie Heritage Trust Cultural Centre. William Street is also home to Melbourne's biggest legal institutions, including the Law Courts, Supreme Courts and the County Court. Take in some impressive architecture at the ANZ Gothic Bank or wander down to the waterfront at Enterprise Wharf and explore the amazing underwater world of Melbourne Aquarium.
